Mock WHO-Style Health Guideline

Topic: General health information and safe use of digital health assistance.

Principle: Digital health tools should support, not replace, qualified healthcare professionals.

Patient safety: Digital tools should clearly communicate uncertainty and when professional care is needed.

Privacy: Health information should be handled with appropriate privacy and access controls.

This is NOT an actual WHO publication. It is fictional mock content created only for testing.