Mock WHO-Style Patient Safety Reference

Topic: Basic patient-safety concepts for a demonstration healthcare system.

Clear communication: Healthcare information should be presented in language users can understand.

Escalation: Potentially serious symptoms should be directed to appropriate professional or emergency services.

Data protection: Patient information should only be accessible to authorized users.

This is NOT an actual WHO document. It is fictional mock content for RAG testing.